American Village Receives National Award for Quality Care

American Village has been recognized as a 2014 recipient of the Bronze – Commitment to Quality Award for its dedication to improving the lives of residents through quality care. The award will be presented by the American Health Care Association and National Center for Assisted Living (AHCA/NCAL).

“This award demonstrates that American Village is committed to striving for quality improvement,” said Ed McMahon, Ph.D., chair of the AHCA/NCAL National Quality Award Board of Overseers. “American Village has laid a strong foundation for continuing on to the Silver and Gold levels.”

The award will be presented to American Village during AHCA/NCAL’s 65th Annual Convention and Exposition, October 5-8, 2014, in Washington, D.C.

Implemented by AHCA/NCAL in 1996, the National Quality Award Program is centered on the core values and criteria of the Baldrige Performance Excellence Program. The program assists providers of long term and post-acute care services in achieving their performance excellence goals.

American Village is operated by American Senior Communities. For more information about the community, please visit the website at www.ASCSeniorCare.com/amv.
