Forest Creek Village Marketing and Admissions Director Honored for Community Involvement

Patrice Hardy, director of marketing and admissions at Forest Creek Village, will be honored for her ongoing support of UPLIFT, an Indianapolis community organization working to help people improve their lives. She is being recognized for personally helping the organization reach youth and families. She will be honored along with three others during a program Saturday, June 27 at Little Bethel Community Center, 3279 Winthrop Ave.

Other honorees include Nicole Magee, Pastor Henry McMullen and Dr. Jeffry Woods. For ticket information, call 855-1240.
